

Kendor Consulting Presents

Human Resources Boot Camp Seminar

Prepare yourself for a new career in 2010!

Getting that first all-important job in Human Resources can be hard. It is even harder for people who don't have any formal training or experience, limiting the number and scope of positions they realistically qualify for.

Over the years the HR profession has continued to grow in terms of numbers and importance to business success. This year HR topped the list of best paying jobs in the USA.

The Human Resources Boot Camp Seminar is designed to give up-and-coming HR practitioners an introduction to the core skills necessary to jump start a career in Human Resources.

Who should attend?

- Anyone interested in a career in Human Resources
- Human Resources Managers
- Professionals transiting into a Human Resources role

Topics covered:

- Why a Human Resources Career?
- Career Opportunities in HR
- Introduction to HR Management
- Key Skills for HR Professionals
- Professional Training and Certifications
- Interview Preparation
- Coaching and Mentoring Opportunities

Time: 9am - 2pm

Fees: 5,000 per person (light refreshments will be provided)

Date: 5th December 2009

Venue: F & G Suites, 7, Ade Akinsanya Street, Off Town Planning way, Ilupeju

To Register Contact: Ekene on 0705 549 7357 or Bawo on 0805 653 6191

Register Online: www.kendorconsulting.com/hrbootcampseminar

Speakers:

Nduka Okoisor - Senior Adviser, KPMG Professional Services

Morinsola Ashiru - Head, HR Business Partner, Bank PHB

Omolola Esan - Senior Consultant, Phillips Consulting

Demola Ojo - HR Business Partner, MTN Nigeria

Adora Ikwemesi - Managing Consultant, Kendor Consulting